

Brington Reads!

Spring Term 2022

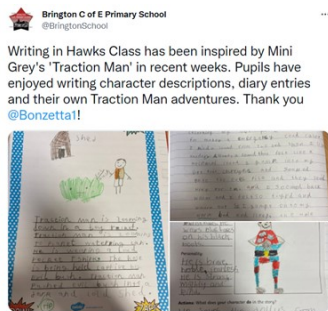

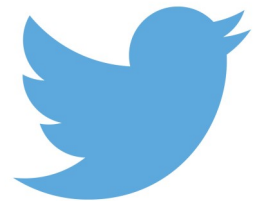

Happy new year!

Welcome to another term full of new book releases, exciting English texts and, most importantly, our annual Book Week (details of which will be coming home in a letter in the next few weeks).

There's a real buzz in school about reading and it's lovely to talk to pupils about new releases and their favourite authors. We'd like to say a huge thank you to all the families who made book donations via our Amazon wish list for Christmas - the books have been snapped up already and they are bringing so much enjoyment!

Can we get a retweet?

We're on a mission to see how many authors we can connect with via the school's Twitter account over the next few months. These are some of the replies we've already had...

What an amazing, inspiring morning for our lucky KS2 pupils! Maz Evans - author of the 'Who Let the Gods Out?' Series - paid us a virtual visit to talk to us about her life as an author. Thank you @MaryAliceEvans !!!

Aw - you were so lovely to chat to - and so patient with all the drama we had leading up to our visit! Joyful to meet you, huge love to you all xxx

NEW PUBLICATIONS THIS TERM

Our Google Classroom 'Bedtime Story Classroom' has been renamed and there's lots going on in there. Mrs Kiernan is recording a chapter at a time of some of our favourite books for you to listen to and some of our keen readers are recording their own stories for you to enjoy too! Any pupil is welcome to upload photos, videos or recommendations for other pupils to enjoy.

Starting this week, there'll be a weekly 'Book Talk' question for everything to think about and respond to. We'd love to hear what some of our parents and other family members think in the responses!

Our first question is...

If you could be a character from any story for just one day, which character would it be and why?

We're really looking forward to seeing your responses!

Stuck for what to read next? Check out our 'Online Library' page on the school website, which is full of pupil reviews, staff bookshelves, online links and recommendations based on your current favourites!

Don't forget our Brington Community book swap in the school foyer!

Families, if you would like to make a donation of books or other library items to the school, please have a look at our Amazon wish list:
