

Brington Reads!

Autumn Term 2022

Welcome to a new school year!

It has been so lovely to have you all back and hear about the fantastic books you've been reading over the summer. The library and terrace have been tidied, we have a sprinkling of new texts dotted about and the teachers have been busy trying to find the very best stories, poems and non-fiction to inspire your writing this term.

We have so much to look forward to this year - our librarians are raring to go and being trained up ready to get the reading spaces open at break and lunch times, Mrs Kiernan is frantically making bids for sets of books so we can start up new book groups and we're already planning Book Week, which will happen in the Spring Term.

Keep an eye on the 'Brington Library' page on Google Classroom for the most up to date news and have a super Autumn Term. There's nothing better than curling up under a blanket with a good book once the colder weather comes!

Welcome our new librarians!

We were blown away by the number of KS2 pupils who wanted to become our reading ambassadors this school year and there are enough for a two week rota! Well done, you lovely lot, and we can't wait to see you all in action...

Autumn Learning

Here are a selection of the texts each class are using this term...

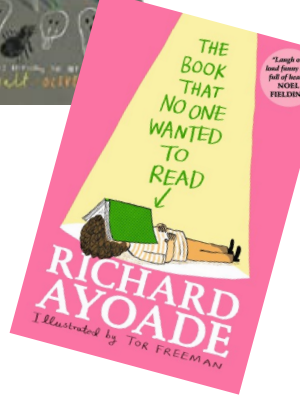

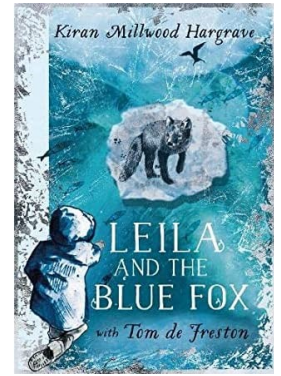

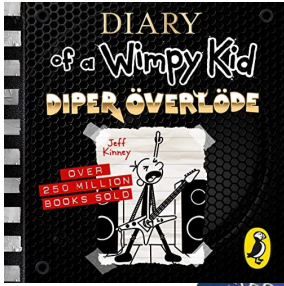

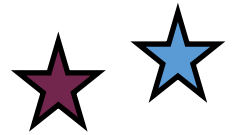

Some thoughts and feelings from the first few weeks...

We are loving 'Brightstorm'!
It's a brilliantly written book
full of cliffhangers...

Our class text is super good and full of animals!

'The Wild Way Home' is keeping us on the edge of our seats!

NEW PUBLICATIONS THIS TERM

This wonderful festival has been running lots of virtual events including workshops and presentations run by the authors and illustrators of books some of us have read and studied in school. They'll be able to watch online until the end of the year!

You can find the website here:

Families, if you would like to make a donation of books or other library items to the school rather than giving end of year gifts to staff, please have a look at our Amazon wish list:
