

Brington Reads!

Summer Term 2023

Welcome to the Summer Term!

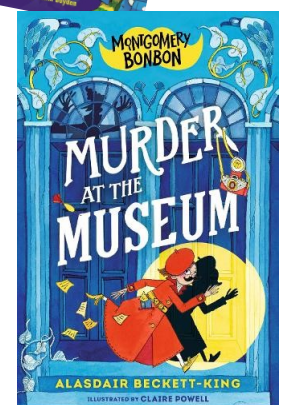

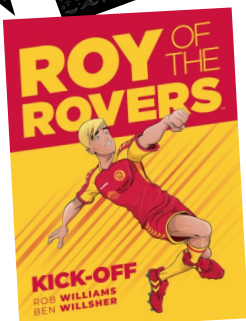

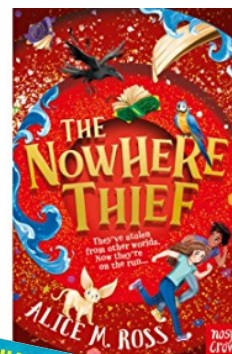

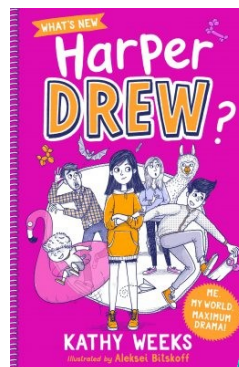

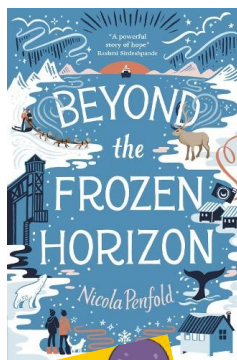

We're looking forward to a bright term full of new books, shared adventures and reading in the sunshine. Our librarians will be moving their work outdoors as soon as the weather allows us to use the field regularly, rotating the book stock each week so we can all enjoy our old favourites as well as discovering some new ones.

Thank you so much to everyone who took part in our annual reading survey during Book Week. Of the people who answered the question about whether you thought we were supporting your child in wanting to read, 100% answered yes! We are so proud of the reading culture at Brington and it has been a real team effort. Thank you for all your hard work.

We are more than happy for you to purchase new books for the children using our school Amazon wish list instead of buying staff gifts at the end of term—please follow the link on the last page of this newsletter if you would like to do so.

WHAT HAS MRS KIERNAN BEEN UP TO?!

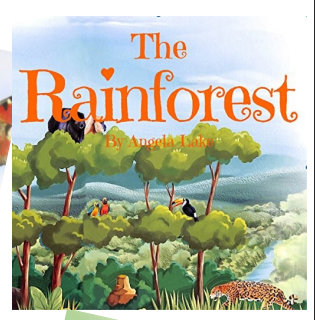

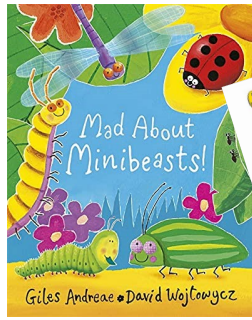

Mrs Kiernan has developed a new and brilliant hobby! She's bombarding publishers with requests for sets of newly-released books in exchange for a few reviews and a social media post! Here are some of the rather wonderful examples we've had this academic year so far. We now have so many copies, we'll be able to start sharing them with other local schools!

BOOK WEEK 2023

Our written outcomes from Book Week included recipes, sequels and responses to agony aunt letters! We also enjoyed Buddy Reading sessions, a 'Cosy Read' with staff reading to pupils all over school, our annual opportunity to dress up as a favourite character and a wild disco! Lots of fun was had by all. Check out our school Facebook posts or class pages for photographs of the week.

Many thanks to everyone who sent in a favourite recipe - The Brington Community Cook Book is coming soon...

Book Festivals

Did you know there was a Book Festival happening in Linton (Cambridge) next month? The Hay Festival is also running at the end of May (just in case you're down that way on holiday during half term or wanting to take part online!). We'll be taking part in some of the schools' events.

Follow the links below to see the workshops and presentations on offer from some of the UK's top authors...
