

Key vocabulary
Physical geography	The study of the Earth's natural features, such as mountains, rivers, deserts and oceans.
Human geography	This focuses on where people live, what they do, and how they use the land.
Climate	The average weather conditions in a certain place over many years.
Weather	The state of the atmosphere at a particular time.
Landscape	This is part of Earth's surface that can be viewed at one time from one place.
Culture	The way each person lives, what they wear, what foods they eat, where they live, what language they speak and what they celebrate within their family
Canyon	A deep, steep-walled, V-shaped valley cut by a river through resistant rock.

Continent of North America

Country of Mexico

United Kingdom

rainforest

desert

mountains

canyons

Pupils will know that the culture of Mexico is very different to the culture of the UK. They are known for having mariachi music and take part in sports such as the rodeo. Their food and language is also different to that of the UK. Their traditional cuisine consists of tacos, burritos, nachos, churros, guacamole and quesadillas. Their main language is Spanish.